Numb. 9314.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 23, to Saturday October 27, 1753.

Lisbon, September 13.

THE Court is ſtill at Belem, where was celebrated on Friday laſt with great Magnificence, the Birth-day of the Queen-Mother, who then entered into the 71ſt Year of her Age.

Madrid, Oct. 1. Laſt Sunday, being the Anniverſary of the King's Birth-day, who entered into the 41ſt Year of his Age, his Majeſty received, on this Occaſion, in the Morning, the Compliments of the Grandees, and of the Ambaſſadors, and other Foreign Miniſters, as well as of the principal Nobility. His Majeſty went afterwards, with a grand Retinue, to the Church of the Monaſtery of St. Jerom, and heard Maſs, and afterwards dined in Pulick. In the Evening was repreſented on the Theatre of Buen-Retiro, the new Opera of Semiramis reconnue, which had all the Succeſs that could be deſired. The Reverend Father John Francis Cavallero, General of the Royal and Military Order of our Lady of Mercy, and the Duke of Santo Pedro, were covered for the firſt Time before the King, in Quality of Grandees of Spain of the Firſt Rank.

Madrid, Oct. 8. The Court will remove on Wedneſday next to the Eſcurial, where their Catholick Majeſties will reſide, as uſual at this Time of the Year, about ſix Weeks.

Stockholm, Oct. 9. The Marquis of Puente Fuerte, late Envoy Extraordinary from Spain to the Court of Denmark, who has been named to reſide here in the ſame Character, arrived here a few Days ago from Copenhagen, with the Marchioneſs his Wife. That Miniſter has already had ſome particular Conferences with Baron de Hepken, Secretary of State, charged with the Department of Foreign Affairs, and is to have either To-morrow or next Day his firſt Audience of his Majeſty, to preſent his Credential Letters.

Stockholm, Oct. 11. On Saturday laſt, about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Queen was happily delivered of a Princeſs; which News was immediately made known to the Publick by the Firing of 128 Pieces of Cannon. Upon which Occaſion the King received on Sunday the Compliments of Congratulation from the Senators, the Magiſtrates, and principal Nobility. Her Royal Highneſs was baptized this Afternoon, in the Great Hall of the Palace, by the Name of Sophia Albertine: The Margrave Frederick William of Brandebourg Schwedt, Prince George of Holſtein Gottorp, the Duke Regent of Brunſwick, and Prince Frederick Auguſtus of Anhalt Zerbſt, were Sponſors. The Baron de Sacken, whom the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, has appointed his Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, arrived here the Day before Yeſterday with a numerous Retinue, and it is thought he will have, in the Courſe of this Week, his firſt Audiences of the King and of the Royal Family.

Vienna, Oct. 10. An Expreſs is arrived here from Preſbourg, with an Account of the Death of the Field Marſhal Prince Lobkowitz, who died Yeſterday of an Apoplexy, in the 68th Year of his Age. He was Knight of the Order of the Golden Fleece, Colonel of the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, and Commander in Chief of the Imperial Troops in Hungary. The Marquis de Botta d'Adorno is every Day expected here from Bruſſels, and it is ſaid, that on his Arrival he will be appointed Grand Maſter of the Houſhold to the Archdutcheſs Mary-Ann.

Berlin, Oct. 10. The Day on which the Bailly de Fronlay, the Malteſe Ambaſſador, had his Audience of Leave of the King, his Majeſty, who has conceived a particular Eſteem for this Nobleman, made him a Preſent of his Picture, incloſed in a Box of moſt exquiſite Workmanſhip, richly ſet with Diamonds.

Copenhagen, Oct. 13. Yeſterday Morning the Queen was happily delivered of a Prince, who is baptized by the Name of Frederick. The King has permitted M. Norck, Major General and Colonel of the Regiment of Horſe of Fühnen, to retire from the Service, and has appointed M. de Molcke to command the ſaid Corps in his Room, who came lately from the Service of the Landgrave of Heſſe into that of our Court.

Bonn, Oct. 19. The Elector, our Sovereign, returned hither laſt Night in perfect Health from Weſtphalia. His moſt Serene Highneſs will go towards the Beginning of next Week to Auguſteburg, in order to take the Diverſion of Hunting for a few Days in the Neighbourhood of that Country Seat.

Hague,

[Price Two-Pence.]

Hague, Oct. 23. The States of Holland and Weſtfrieſland will open their Aſſembly on the 31ſt of this Month, and the Letters of Convocation are already ſent for that Purpoſe to the reſpective Towns of this Province. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante has appointed Baron Bentink to be Superintendant of the Dykes in the Diſtrict of Delft, vacant by the Death of the late Baron de Waſſenaer.

THAT ſeveral Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Mid-Lothian in Scotland, and others, Proprietors of entailed Eſtates, having taken under Conſideration, the many Hardſhips and Inconveniencies with which their Properties and Families are affected by the preſent Situation of ſuch Tenures limited on Perpetuity; Hardſhips and Inconveniencies, which not only affect them ſingly, in their private Capacity, but, which affect the Police and Improvement of the whole Country in general; and of which, the bad Conſequences have been long felt, and long complained of; They have, therefore reſolved, to apply, by Petition, to the next Seſſion of Parliament, to have theſe Hardſhips and Inconveniencies removed, by the Interpoſition of the Legiſlature, in the Way which ſhall ſeem moſt proper and expedient.—And, as theſe Hardſhips and Inconveniencies are as various, as are the Entails themſelves, and are beſt known to the Perſons who labour under them; and, as this intended Application to Parliament is projected, not with a View to the Advantage of the few, but of the many; therefore, the ſaid Noblemen and Gentlemen have reſolved to meet in John's Coffee Houſe at Edinburgh, on Tueſday the 20th Day of November next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon; at which Meeting, all who deſign to join in the ſaid Petition to Parliament, are deſired to be preſent, by themſelves, or their Agents, in order that the ſame may be drawn in the beſt and moſt comprehenſive Way poſſible, ſo as to anſwer moſt effectually the good Ends and Purpoſes thereby propoſed; and that it may be preſented to Parliament, with all that Strength and Unanimity which the Importance of the Caſe calls for and demands.

N. B. It is expected that thoſe who intend to concur in this Application, will be punctual in their Attendance on the ſaid Meeting of the 20th of November next.

Advertiſements.

THE Creditors of Mr. James Scott, late of Rupert Street St. James Weſtminſter, Carpenter, (as alſo of Jane his Widow, both deceaſed) are deſired to ſend an Account of their ſeveral Demands to Mr. Haydock Hill, Timber Merchant, in Craven Street in the Strand, London, one of the Executors. And all Perſons indebted to the Eſtate of the ſaid James Scott and Jane his Widow, are deſired forthwith to pay the ſame to the ſaid Mr. Hill, he being authoriſed to receive the ſame by the other Executor.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again; and by James Eſtall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Diſſertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, ſold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

WHEREAS at a Meeting of ſeveral of the Commiſſioners acting under a certain Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the 24th Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (intitled, An Act for the better carrying on and regulating the Navigation of the River Thames and Iſis, from the City of London, Weſtward, to the Town of Cricklade in the County of Wilts) held at the Town Hall in Reading in the County of Berks, on Tueſday the 4th Day of September laſt; the ſaid Commiſſioners then preſent, by Virtue of the Power by the ſaid Act in them repoſed, did, amongſt other Orders and Conſtitutions then and there made, greatly lower and reduce the Prices uſually paid at Hambleden Lock therein mentioned; the Proprietor of the ſaid Lock gives this publick Notice, to all Perſons whatſoever, who may have any Intereſt or Concern therein, that he intends to apply, at the next Meeting of the ſaid Commiſſioners, (to be held by Adjournment) at the Swan Inn at Staines Bridge, on Thurſday the 8th Day of November next, in order to have the ſaid Order of the 4th of September laſt annulled and repealed, or to be otherwiſe relieved in the Premiſſes.

ALL Perſons indebted to the Eſtate or Effects of Mathew Gelieu, late of the Town of Woburn in the County of Bedford, Attorney at Law, deceaſed, or have any Demands thereon, are deſired forthwith to pay their reſpective Debts, and ſend an Account of their reſpective Claims, to Mary Farey, of Woburn aforeſaid, Adminiſtratrix to the aforeſaid Mathew Gelieu.
